Yellow Earth Academy 2017

ACADEMY SHORTS SCREENING

Monday 25th September 2017 – 6pm
The Hospital Club

Yellow Earth Academy is a partnership between Yellow Earth Theatre and ALRA (Academy of Live and Recorded Arts).

It is a fully funded intensive two-week course for young British East Asians (aged 16+). It gives participants a taste of life at drama school and of the level and breadth of skills needed to sustain a career in theatre, TV, film and radio.

This year the focus of the course was on Acting For Camera. This involved the making, with award-winning filmmaker Lab Ky Mo, of the two short films you are about to see. Classes also included movement, voice, and stage combat taught by tutors from ALRA and Yellow Earth.

ABOUT YELLOW EARTH

Yellow Earth Theatre creates, nurtures and champions the best of British East Asian Theatre.

We seek out and identify East Asian artistic talent, and create opportunities for actors, writers and directors to make bold, imaginative and thought-provoking theatre. We bring unheard voices and stories to audiences from all backgrounds through our touring productions, our site-specific work and public readings. We also run professional development programmes for actors and writers, and outreach work in schools and museums.

For more information visit www.yellowearth.org or find us on Facebook /yellowearth and on Twitter /yellowearthuk
